

You could contact me:

ejsalminen@gmail.com

Institute of Udmurt Philology, Finno-Ugric Studies and Journalism; department of General and Finno-Ugric Linguistics

Campus bld.2, room 209

Hello! My name is Esa-Jussi Salminen. I am from Heinolan mlk, Finland. I work as a lecturer of Finnish language in the Udmurt State University 2015-2017 (sent by Center for International Mobility, Helsinki). The courses I am giving are: Practical Finnish language, History of Finnish language, Lexicology of Finnish language, Grammar of Finnish language.

My education:

2006 onwards PhD studies in Finno-Ugric language studies (Turku university)

1991–2006: BA and MA studies and degree (FM) in Finno-Ugric language studies (University of Turku) ·

1995-2004: supplementary studies of Finnish, Finno-Ugric, Baltic, Slavic and Turkic languages (University of Helsinki)

Work experience:

2003-2005 university lecturer (Mari State university)

2005-2007 university lecturer (Udmurt State university)

2008-2009 university lecturer (Mari State university) and researcher of Finnish studies in Russian Finno-Ugric regions

2010-2013 university lecturer (UBB, Cluj-Napoca, Romania)

Research interests

Broader research interests:

- Finno-Ugric languages and cultures in Central Russia

Narrower research interests:

- Determinative and possessive suffixes and syntax of Udmurt and Mari language
- Popularization of the Finno-Ugric peoples of Russia in Finland
- Research of Udmurt literature and translating it into Finnish
- Teaching of Finnish as a foreign language in Finno-Ugric regions of European Union and Russia
- Status of Finno-Ugric languages in Russian Federation
- Ethnofuturism

Major research projects

- 2000-2001:assistant in the project of the Finnish literary language of the 19th century, KOTUS, Helsinki
- 2008-2009 researcher (CIMO) of Finnish studies in Russian Finno-Ugric regions